Summer Reading List

This summer, make a commitment to have your scholar read everyday. It helps to sharpen their reading, writing, spelling and vocabulary. Scholars develop their comprehension and are able to understand different elements of reading. This summer, your scholar will be required to read an informational text and a fictional story. They must complete the following assignments.

Informational Text: Any book from the “Blast Back” series. Author: Nancy Ohlin

Informational Text Assignment: Write a paragraph to answer each of the following questions.

- *What were some of the major events that happened?
- *Who were important people during that time?
- *What are three things that you learned?

Fictional Text: Scholars may choose any book they would like to read and complete the attached book report form.

IXL: IXL must be completed in the areas of math and language arts. Scholars must spend one hour a week reviewing skills. In addition, scholars should be reviewing their addition, subtraction, and multiplication facts.
